A Message From the Director of Foundation Affairs

Terry Kowalenko, MD

Happy New Year to you and your families. I am Terry Kowalenko, MD, the inaugural American Board of Emergency Medicine (ABEM) Director of Foundation Affairs. I am excited to help build the ABEM Foundation (ABEMF) under the direction of the ABEMF Board of Directors (BOD), the ABEM BOD, and our Executive Directors. I am truly grateful to each of you who have contributed to the ABEMF.

Since starting in mid-April, and with the help of our team and all of you, we have accomplished a great deal. We now have a mission and vision statement as well as a new logo. We have updated our website page and significantly expanded the ways to give, including personal checks, credit cards, donor-advised funds, bequests, life insurance beneficiary designations, and honoraria donations.

The Foundation, together with ABEM, supports several important programs and initiatives, including the Dr. Leon L. Haley, Jr., Bridge to the Future of Emergency Medicine Academy; the J. David Barry, MD, ABMS Visiting Scholar Program; research; education; and the Henry Ford Health RYSE MED Program. We are also developing several new programs, including an early-career leadership initiative, and supporting an annual summit.

We continue to pursue grant and endowment opportunities, and we are working to broaden the ways you can contribute to advancing the specialty of Emergency Medicine.

This past year, ABEM hosted the fourth Haley Academy. Twelve students attended an all-expenses-paid, two-week educational experience in East Lansing at the ABEM offices. As part of the program, students visited the Central Michigan University and Henry Ford Health System Emergency Medicine residency programs. Both students and instructors found the experience meaningful and enjoyable.

“ We are working to broaden the ways you can contribute to advancing the specialty of Emergency Medicine. ”

We would greatly appreciate your input on future programs we should consider developing and supporting. Please visit the ABEMF webpage to complete the short survey, or feel free to reach out to me directly at tkowalenko@abem.org.

Thank you again for your past and future support.
